INSTRUCTIONS.

1. No place shall be used for any of the purposes mentioned in the Bye-laws referred to in the Schedule without previously obtaining a licence therefor from the Commissioner of the City of Bangalore Municipal Corporation.

2. Any person wishing to use any premises for the said purpose shall apply to the Commissioner for a licence. Every application shall be in Form 'A' appended to this schedule and the licence shall be in Form 'B'. Except in the case of temporary licence, every application should be made not less than thirty days before the date from which the licence applied for is to commence.

3. All applications for licences, permission or registration made within thirty days before the commencement of the business are liable for a fee of 25 per cent in excess of the fee prescribed in the schedule, and 50 per cent excess if licences, permission or registration are applied for after the commencement of the trade. Every licence, permission or registration should be renewed year after year after its expiry on payment of the prescribed fees. Every application for the renewal of a licence granted under the Bye-laws shall be made not later than the 1st March of the year preceding that in respect of which the renewal is applied for.

4. The remittance of licences fee and excess fee under this schedule does not entitle an applicant to start the trade before a licence is actually issued.

5. No licence shall be granted for a period exceeding one year and every licence shall be granted so as to expire with the official year; provided that a temporary licence for a period not exceeding one year may be granted for any special occasion and such licence shall expire with the period for which it is granted.

6. The Commissioner, may in his discretion, in consultation with Health Officer or the Corporation Engineer or the Revenue Officer, as the case may be, grant or refuse a licence. When he refuses to grant a licence he shall give reasons therefor and an appeal shall lie to the concerned Standing Committee from such an order or refusal under Section 386 (i) of the Corporation Act.

7. The licence granted under the Bye-laws shall not be transferable either as regards the person to whom or the place for which it is granted.

8. The licence granted under the Bye-laws shall be prominently exhibited at the place of business, and should be produced or surrendered for scrutiny or examination whenever required by the staff authorised for the purpose.

9. All the places of business where licences, permission and registrations have been issued or places requiring licences, permission and registrations, are open for inspection by the Commissioner or by his duly authorised staff at all reasonable times under Section 382 (5) of the Corporation Act, and no claim shall lie against any person for any damage or inconvenience caused by the exercise of powers under this section.

10. All applications for licences should be in the prescribed application form with all the details duly filled in and signed by the applicant or his authorised agent. Forms of applications can be had from the Corporation Offices, at Bangalore City and Civil Area.

11. The prescribed licence fee under this schedule should be paid along with the application and any monies paid in excess of the Schedule fees are not ordinarily eligible for refunds, as a matter of right.

12. No payment to any department of the Corporation will be valid as against any licence fee unless a receipt from the Department is obtained.

K. HENJERAPPA,
Commissioner,
Corporation of the City of Bangalore.
